The all-new Elden Ring is a story where the first Elden Lord that cracks an Epixion's Seal from another world is set free. The seal is a magical seal set long ago when a warlock contacted the world of Elden and sealed in the Epixion system. A warlock is an advanced sorcerer whose existence was kept secret and whose existence is believed to be barred from the outside world. In this new world, a warlock named Tarnished suddenly appears. Tarnished's existence is a great mystery that is yet to be solved, and is linked to a world unknown to the outside world. Because the Epixion Civilization is currently experiencing a period of decline, the balance between human society and the world of Elden is off and it has been rumored that the planet is suffering a pandemic.

And the only one who can break the seal is you. You are an adventurer from the world of Elden who has appeared in this world through some kind of accident. You are an ordinary person who just went about their business and suddenly one day, unlike before, you encounter the action that you never want. An action that involves a warlock and is rooted in a mysterious power called a Pendant that has appeared over there.

I've been playing the beta for several months now so I'm well aware of its many issues and have been accustomed to putting up with them. I wanted to give it a fair shake, though, so I took a risk and bought a copy of the base client. Sure enough, that's a game of guild building where you choose your race, subrace and class before you start. Now that I'm playing I will tell you what it's like. Read More...
